Hurricane Fran destroyed our tower and antenna.
We're currently broadcasting to a limited radius with a temporary tower. By early March, WXDU will be back on the air.

Check out "Power Of Tower", now in local record stores. This compilation CD features bands recorded during "Live from the 'XDU Lounge", WXDU's local music show. All profits will help pay for our new antenna. (And it rocks!)

Spring Schedule of Shows

February 14th The Nee Ningy Band Captured Live. 9pm. $6. Durham CBGF faves reunite for one show. They're psyched, and we're damn glad they asked us to join in.

February 24th Matthew Shipp & William Parker
Nelson Music Room (on Duke's East Campus) $12/$6 Students. Advance Tickets are available from Page Box Office 684-4444, and Poindexter Records on 9th St.
Co-sponsored by The Duke Institute of the Arts.

March 1st Cul de Sac & Bicentennial Quarters
Back on the air party (yippee!) at Duke Coffeehouse. Cul de Sac films will also be shown. Experience the mysterious thingie in person.

April 19th William Hooker Trio Duke Coffeehouse. Co-sponsored by The Duke Institute of the Arts. Improv regulars at the Knitting Factory grace the Triangle with their presence. Will it be as mysterious and exciting as it was at CMJ two years ago?

Early May The Flying Luttenbachers (Tentative) Duke Coffeehouse. We can't wait for this one! As intense as the Ruins, but with face paint.

Proceeds from these shows will help pay for the new antenna.
